

Proposed Prohibition on the Use of Scents derived from Deer, Elk, or Moose

Scents derived from deer, elk, and moose cannot be used in Montana as bait in accordance with MCA 87-6-101 and the use or sale of deer or elk urine to mask human odor is prohibited if the urine originated in a state or province with documented occurrences of chronic wasting disease as determined by the commission in accordance with MCA 87-6-221.